

THAPAR INSTITUTE OF ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY
(Deemed to be University)

Residential Medical Officer

Thapar Institute of Engineering & Technology is one of India's oldest and finest educational institutions providing a steady source of highly skilled talent. Cutting-edge research is at the heart of the institute and its sprawling campus has over 100 teaching and research laboratories in engineering and sciences.

The Institute has embarked on a wide-ranging Contemporarization Program in partnership with Trinity College, Dublin to provide world-class education experiences by incorporating global best practices through delivering a research inspired outcome based exposure to students. The scope of this collaboration covers all major academic, research activities apart from providing state-of-the-art lab and physical infrastructure, faculty training & development, and joint programs. The institute also has synergistic relationships with other internationally renowned institutions which provides for exposure to world-class development of teaching staff.

Position	: Residential Medical Officer
Department	: Health Centre
Nature of Employment	: Contractual (Adhoc)
No. of Vacancies	: 1
Qualification	: MBBS; Those with MD in Medicine will have an added advantage.
Experience	: Minimum 8 years of experience. Retired doctors from government hospitals, private sectors and armed forces will also be considered.
Remuneration	: The remuneration package is designed to attract the best talent in the sector.

Note: The selected candidate will have to reside on campus as the job requires the doctor to be on call for any emergencies. Suitable accommodation will be provided.

Job Description

- Provide quality clinical care to patients.
- Handling of communicable disease.
- Ensure best medical care.
- Proper awareness regarding patient investigation and clinical condition.
- Ensure Emergency Preparedness & Response.
- Ensure timely attention and intervention for any query or requirement from the patients.
- Documentation: Patient record, medicine purchases & issue, hygiene & sanitation etc.

Competencies & Skills

- Good subject knowledge of general medicine and medical practices
- Empathy
- Emotional Intelligence
- Good verbal & written communication
- Analytical Skills

For obtaining more details, please visit our website <http://www.thapar.edu/>. Please apply by 15th Jan 18. Email- amandeep.dhot@thapar.edu