

Programme Educational Objectives

- Demonstrate technical expertise to provide solutions for challenging problems by applying computer engineering theory and principles.
- Engage in life-long learning and professional development to adapt to rapidly changing field of computer engineering.
- Achieve leadership roles in their profession by inculcating professional ethics and code of professional practices